Police charge three suspects in recent commercial burglaries

Howard County police have charged three suspects in a recent series of commercial burglaries.

Between Jan. 1 and 3, four Ellicott City businesses were victims of burglary. Through investigation, police identified and charged three local suspects.

Yae Gang Chung, 18, of Manahan Drive in Ellicott City, Rane Nikolas Dellinger, 18, of Autumn Hill Drive in Ellicott City, and a juvenile male, 16, of Ellicott City, have been charged with burglary, theft and malicious destruction of property in the following cases:

Jan. 1, International Food Mart, 8700 block of Town and Country Boulevard: Suspects gained entry to the business by breaking the front door glass and stole cigarettes.

Jan. 1, VFW, 4200 block of VFW Lane: Suspects gained entry to the building by breaking a window and stole bottles of alcohol.

Chung and Dellinger were charged with burglary, theft and malicious destruction of property in the following additional cases:

Jan. 2, Allview Liquors, 9400 block of Old Annapolis Road: Suspects gained entry to the business by breaking a window and stole bottles of alcohol.

Jan. 3, Petite Cellars, 11000 block of Resort Road: Suspect gained entry to the business by breaking the rear door and stole bottles of wine.

The 16-year-old juvenile was also charged with destruction of property in incidents at Classic Kia of Ellicott City and Norris Acura West in the 8500 block of Baltimore National Pike after he shot dealership and vehicle windows with a bb gun in late December.

Chung and Dellinger have been released from the Howard County Detention Center after posting bond; the juvenile was released to the custody of a guardian.
